

*Help Keep The Fireworks
Celebration in Lahaina Alive!*

May 1st, 2017

Aloha!

We would like to say a big “Mahalo” for helping make 2016’s Fourth of July Fireworks Celebration a huge success. It was a spectacular event and we saw the true Aloha spirit come forward. We are asking for your help once again to help us produce the biggest Lahaina 4th of July event to date. We are extending the display to 15 minutes. We are also adding a mobile app. Which will have the music for the firework display and links to share the event on social media. Businesses that are donating will have their logos on the apps banner. It is a major economic event for West Maui and Lahaina businesses. Lahaina is the place to be for Maui's only aerial fireworks display. It is an event residents and visitors have come to expect and enjoy.

Our first and most challenging step in making the 2017 event a reality is to raise the money needed for the fireworks. A 4th of July celebration would not be the same without a spectacular fireworks display. The cost of the fireworks alone are $40,000.00 plus there are other event expenses. Last year with the generosity of the community and business leaders such as yourself the event was successful with an estimated 20,000 participants.

JOIN THE MISSION!

"The mission of the Lahaina Town Action Committee is to promote, preserve and encourage the historical, cultural, social, commercial and environmental vitality and significance of Lahaina.

All donations will be publically acknowledged.

All donations are welcome and greatly appreciated Please make your pledge now by faxing this form back to us at 661-4779 today! We will then give your pledge to the planning committee who will follow up with you for payment.

Mahalo in advance for your support!

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification Instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
